(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

1. Petitioner includes also Petition to Make Special due to age and disability, spinal cord injuries causing ongoing severe sleep/rest deficit with many pains, aggravations, sick days.
2. Petitioner saw obvious, important errors in Final Office Action Dec. 1, 03. Petitioner, expecting a fair and just examiner would reverse such errors, made reply Feb. 26, 04 (revised per Advisory of Apr. 20, 04 on Apr. 30, 04) pointing out errors and import of same. In one error the Action (p. 2, 1.18) ascribes to prior art, Rawls, "...independently of stride..." (stride equals rearward movement). Rawls' Abstract (1. 5) describes: "...a dependent action...rearward movement of one pedal causing the forward movement of the other..". The examiner has it exactly opposite. The dependent action is shown throughout.
3. Advisory Action Oct. 4, 04: "...applicant's arguments not persuasive". Amendment was not entered as not a proper reply.
4. Petitioner conferred with examiner by phone Nov. 1 and Dec. 1, 04, examiner not changing position. Petitioner asked outgoing supervisor Nov. 10 and new supervisor Dec. 14 and 22, 04 to review errors, latter responding "...have no authority".
5. Petitioner filed Notice of Appeal Dec. 6, 04, but upon contacting supervisor Dec. 14 was told: "application is abandoned and appeal too late". Petitioner asked about Petition to Director whereupon supervisor referred to Special Programs Examiner.
6. Petitioner filed Petition to the Director Jan. 14, 05 asking to review examiner's errors and reverse holdings based on same.
7. The Petition to the Director was not decided on until Jun. 21, 06 as "Dismissed", holding "matter for appeal".
8. In summation, petitioner feels he made honest and proper efforts to advance the examination and could not have avoided the outcome as above described.
